Bridgewater Bank Reopens Downtown Minneapolis Branch

St. Louis Park, MN – Bridgewater Bank, a leading Twin Cities bank focused on meeting the unique needs of successful individuals and entrepreneurs, today announced the reopening of its downtown Minneapolis branch to its entrepreneurial client base, the downtown business community and the public, effective Monday, June 14th.

The downtown branch, located within the Northstar Building on the corner of 6th Street and Marquette Avenue, has been temporarily closed in response to the pandemic and unrest in Minneapolis. Bridgewater is one of the few locally based banks to reopen its doors downtown, signifying its commitment to the area’s revitalization and the support of local businesses.

“We are a local bank committed to serving the Twin Cities, and that includes downtown,” said President & Chief Executive Officer, Jerry Baack. “We are optimistic about downtown’s future, and reopening our doors is part of our pledge to be there for our local clients, entrepreneurs and the greater business community.”

Bridgewater’s downtown branch hours are 8:30 a.m.-4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday. Clients are not required to make an appointment. Full branch information can be found on the Bank’s website, bwbmn.com.
