Bridgewater Bank Welcomes Patrick Craig as Vice President Commercial Lending

Bloomington, MN – Bridgewater Bank, a leading Minnesota bank focused on meeting the unique needs of successful small business entrepreneurs, real estate investors and individuals, is pleased to welcome Patrick Craig to its lending team as Vice President Commercial Lending.

“Bridgewater is known for its dynamic team of commercial real estate lenders,” says Nick Place, Chief Lending Officer. “Welcoming local talent like Patrick only brings more depth to this group and optimizes the potential for enhancing our loan portfolio.”

Patrick joins Bridgewater with over 10 years’ experience in commercial and real estate lending at financial institutions, including The Private Bank (now CIBC Bank USA). Patrick will use his expertise to deliver simple, flexible lending solutions to current and prospective commercial clients, and advance Bridgewater’s robust loan portfolio.

Patrick graduated from the D’Amore McKim School of Business at Northeastern University in Boston, Massachusetts, majoring in Finance and Management.
